

Student Volunteers Needed

The Erin Kimball Foundation is a non-profit organization. Our mission is to save lives and end the repeated intergenerational trauma of domestic violence. We provide homeless survivors the time, housing, and empowerment support to strengthen resiliency, enhance safety, increase education, boost incomes and create healthy, loving, non-violent families, opening the doors of hope.

The Erin Kimball Foundation is looking for DSU student volunteers to assist in this mission. We are looking for individuals with experience and a desire to assist with:

Marketing - to assist in website maintenance, publicity and marketing

Social work or psychology - to assist with classes and group sessions in the facility

Early childhood education –to assist with classes for children in the facility

English or journalism -to assist with grant writing, press releases

Film/video production- to assist with making a short video of the facility

For more information or to volunteer please contact Sue Kimball at sue.erinkimball@gmail.com
