

KUED WOMEN AND GIRLS LEAD RESOURCES

KUED launched its Women and Girls Lead Initiative in 2012 as part of a national PBS initiative. The initiative continues with 6 new episodes of Makers: Women Who Make America, coming this September to KUED.

- Makers: Women Who Make America. Watch the original 3-part PBS series: <http://video.pbs.org/program/makers-women-who-make-america/>
- Makers: Voices of Utah Women. KUED's production tells the story of the women's movement in Utah through firsthand accounts of the women who fought to alter the social fabric of our state: <http://video.kued.org/video/2339261708>
- Women Redefined. The Spyhop production in partnership with KUED features four short films by young Utah filmmakers exploring what it means to be a woman today.
 - Defending Dignity
 - Realm of Possibility
 - The Woman Inside Me
 - F Word
- Sheroes Web Exclusive Interviews. Web exclusive interviews with inspiring Utah "Sheroes" show the obstacles women overcame on their paths to success. <http://video.kued.org/search/?q=sheroes&type=clip>
- Women and Girls Lead: Collected Works. After holding a writing workshop for at-risk young girls, KUED curated an exhibit and published a book of their works. Read a PDF at http://www.kued.org/sites/default/files/women-and-girls-lead-essay_book.pdf
- Film Screenings. If you're interested in holding screenings of films on issues related to women, contact Rachelle Anderson (801 585-3523) to see what's available.