“Coaching for Success”

with

Dorothy Allred Solomon
Creative Writer, Teacher, Life Coach

This workshop will explore the role effective communication plays in mentoring students and coaching them to success. Some skills to be honed include the following: How to create a lasting agreement to foster a safe, honest and authentic relationship; how to sustain a context of accountability galvanized by the student's choices; how to reinforce the student's vision and call forth a deep sense of purpose; how to achieve desired results through intention plus action; how to establish “pay-it-forward” consciousness so that successful students want to serve others.

WHEN: August 21, 2015 (Friday) 1:00-2:30 p.m.

WHERE: Holland 537 – Zion Room

WHO: Female faculty and staff
